

Brief Sketch of Life

Anthony Wayne Redmon, Sr. was born June 4, 1949 in Terre Haute, Indiana to Otis and Stella Redmon. He was a graduate of Gerstmeyer High School. While serving in the United States Army, he was awarded the Bronze Star during the Vietnam War. After his military service, he graduated from Indiana State University, with a degree in economics and business.

Anthony accepted Jesus Christ as his personal savior at an early age. He was a member of Legion Pioneer Post #340. He retired from working retail management in 2008. Anthony, also known as Tooty, enjoyed spending time with his family, reading Black History books, and taking photos of his family.

Anthony Wayne Redmon, Sr. passed away on September 22, 2019 surrounded by his family. He was preceded in death by his parents, Otis and Stella, and his siblings, Gladys, Otis Jr., Kenneth, Thomas, Lawrence, Linda, and Darlene. He will be greatly missed by all that loved him.

Left to cherish his beloved memories are his wife, Helen Marlene, three daughters, Lynnea (Jason), Marla, and Clarendia; one son, Tony (Dana); eight grandchildren and several great grandchildren; two sisters, Anna Barnhill and Jessie Trigg; two brothers, Paul Redmon and Michael Redmon; numerous nieces and nephews; and a host of other relatives and friends.

The family of Anthony Wayne Redmon Sr. wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation the many comforting messages, prayers, flowers, and other expressions of kindness and concern. May God bless and keep each of you.