

Clifford Westley Robinson

July 11, 1972 - January 31, 2016

Clifford W. Robinson was born in Indianapolis, Indiana to Clifford Cornelius Robinson and Donna Marie Ross on July 11, 1972. He parted this earthly world on January 31, 2016.

He was a graduate of Military School in Howell, Indiana in 1990. He continued his education at Morris Brown College in Atlanta, Georgia. He eventually went on to complete an undergraduate degree and received a masters of science degree from University of Colorado, Boulder in 2005.

Early in life, he developed an interest in computers and technology. You could always find him doing something on his laptop. He had multiple certifications in various areas including Networking and Telecommunications, Systems Analysis and Integrations. He was an entrepreneur as served as an Information Services Consultant and was the sole owner of UISystems which was a web based business.

He attended Wheeler Avenue Baptist Church. He was the master prankster, and always did the best imitations, especially Eddie Murphy. When not on his computer, he enjoyed playing golf, video games and was the perfect example of what it was to be laid back. He had recently moved to Austin, TX to further his career.

He was preceded in death by his father Clifford Robinson; and sister Dawn Marie Robinson.

His greatest pride and joy was his family whom he leaves to mourn. He is survived by his mother Donna Ross of Houston, TX; grandmother Ambassador Cynthia Shepard-Perry of Manvel, TX; children Cierra Robinson of Houston, TX; Alexis Roebuck of Memphis TN; Ciya Robinson of Kansas City, MO; Clifford Robinson, Ethan Robinson of Houston, TX; Donna Robinson of San Antonio, TX; sisters Pam Ross of Phoenix, AZ; Christine Robinson of Charlotte, NC; Kimberly Robinson Corbin of Silver Spring, MD; Kelly DeGraffenreid Organ of Atlanta, GA; brothers Kent Ross and Kamyron Thompson of Houston, TX. He also leaves a hosts of uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.
