

Felix Cabell Shepard

Obituary

December 18, 1921 – November 14, 1990

It came to pass on December 18, 1921; God saw fit through George and Anna Shepard in the city of Terre Haute, Indiana, to bestow upon this earth the presence of their son, Felix C. Shepard.

In accordance with God's divine wish, Felix's life was taken Wednesday morning, November 14, 1990 at 11:15 A.M.

Felix enjoyed 68 fulfilling years with his loved ones. He had a happy childhood attending District #3 School and accepted Christ at an early age.

He served in the U.S. Army during WW II for three years.

At the age of 30, Felix moved from Terre Haute, Indiana to Colorado Springs, Colorado, where he became an entrepreneur in real estate and as an automobile dealer.

There was never a moment of rest for him. Felix could never say no to anyone. He loved sharing his time and life with others. He was an inspiration to the youth of his family, always encouraging them to further their education.

Felix lived each day for those he loved. He was always there with a helping hand, a compassionate heart and a smile on his face. He was a man of many skills and talents.

To share his happiness, was joy. To have his love, was wealth. Though we mourn the loss of losing Felix, we know it was his gain. For where he will dwell, there can be no earthly pain.

His family and friends will miss him dearly.

Felix was a loving father, brother, uncle, and friend. He leaves to mourn his passing:

Two sons: Thomas Allen of Danville, Illinois and Felix Shepard Jr. of San Diego, California:

Three daughters: Sarina Dempsey of Colorado Springs, Colorado, Pamela Llanas of San Antonio, Texas, and Vicki Shepard Berry of Los Angeles, California;

Two brothers: James O. Shepard Sr. and George R. Shepard, both of Terre Haute, Indiana;

One sister: Nola J. Wilford of Terre Haute, Indiana;

A devoted companion: Velma Varos of Colorado Springs, Colorado;

Six grandchildren, several nieces and nephews, other relatives, and a host of friends.

Funeral arrangements and visitation handled by the RUSSELL FUNERAL HOME.

Funeral services conducted at the Lost Creek Baptist Church.

Interment at Stewart Lawn Cemetery on November 17, 1990.
