Glenford Frank Walden

The Tribune-Star

TERRE HAUTE — Glenford Frank Walden, 81, of Terre Haute, passed away at 5:16 p.m. Tuesday, Jan. 31, 2012, in Union Hospital. He was born Aug. 13, 1930, in Terre Haute, to Glenford Walden and Bertha Vivian Ross Walden. Glen attended District 3 and graduated from Glenn High School. He entered the U.S. Army, stationed in Germany and served from 1951 to 1953. He was united in marriage to Charleene Paschal on June 1, 1957. They were married for 54 years.

Glen became a member of Lost Creek Missionary Baptist Church, where he served as trustee. He also was trustee emeritus of Lost Creek Community Grove and former trustee and treasurer for Stewart Lawn Cemetery Organization.

Glen was a 53-year member of Pioneer Post 340, American Legion, lifetime member of Von Schepper 9, Disabled American Veterans, lifetime member of Lawton Byron Post 972, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Vice Commander of the Sixth District of the American Legion, and Post Hospital Chairman from 1994-1999 at the VFW. He served many years on the funeral detail with the VFW. He was a former member of the Young Men's Civic Club.

Glen's long working career included working at the Elks Club, Allis-Chalmers, Stran Steel, Woolco Department Stores, Hulman Center, Brinks, Inc., a mail carrier for the U.S. Postal Service, and his last job as an elementary school bus driver, was in his own words – "the best job he ever had".

He enjoyed the fellowship of church, the patriotic organizations and his home and family.

He leaves to cherish his memories his wife, Charleene Paschal Walden; three daughters and their husbands, Linda and Bobby Noble, Peggy and Charles Irvin of Terre Haute, and Vivian and Eric Tompkins of Indianapolis; 11 grandchildren; 23 great-grandchildren; and seven great-great-grandchildren; two sisters-in-law, Hazel Ross of Terre Haute and Victoria Turnley of Indianapolis; an uncle, Glenn Leon Ross of Terre Haute; a god-son, Bryson Glenn Walker of Indianapolis.

Visitation is today Feb. 3, 2012, from 4 until 8 p.m. in Callahan-DeBaun Funeral Home, 2425 Wabash Ave., and from 10 a.m. until service time Saturday in the church. Funeral services will be Saturday, Feb. 4, 2012, at 11 a.m. in Lost Creek Baptist Church with the Rev. Terrell Jones officiating. Burial will be in Stewart Lawn Cemetery with military honors provided by Lawton-Byrum Post 972 VFW. Online condolences may be left at: www.callahanfuneralhome.com
