

Lloyd Vernon Tyler

Apr 28, 1943 - Feb 6, 2016

Lloyd's Story

Lloyd Vernon Tyler "Wild Child" was born April 28, 1943, in Terre Haute, to Raymond Z Tyler and Rachel Emeline Allen Tyler. He departed from his labor on Earth on Saturday, Feb. 6, 2016, at 72 years of age.

At an early age he moved with his family to Burnett. He attended Fontanet and Otter Creek schools. Later he attended Ivy Tech, studying auto mechanics. He had a life-long love for fixing cars. Lloyd was a logger for many years. Later he worked at Terre Haute Malleable, but always worked on cars. He enjoyed fishing and mushroom hunting, but most of all he enjoyed hanging out in his garage with his posse.

He was preceded in death by his parents; a brother, Raymond Leroy Tyler; two brothers-in-law, Orville Norton Sr. and Harold Bullard; and one grandson.

Lloyd leaves to cherish his memory his companion, Donna K. Bell; five daughters, Mischell Jackson-Bailey (Gregory) of Indianapolis, Donna Tyler of Terre Haute, Eartha Humes, Angela Tyler (James Wren), and Renee Tyler-Dickson (Deondra), all of Peoria, Ill.; 13 grandchildren; three stepgrandchildren; and 21 great-grandchildren; five sisters, Delores Simpson (James Jr.), F. Diann Bullard, Ethel M. Norton, Raylan F. Dillard (Thomas), all of Terre Haute, and Thelma S. Noble of Tulsa, Okla.; brothers, Bertie C. Tyler Sr. (Deanna), and William D. Tyler (Cheryl), all of Terre Haute; a favorite aunt, Louise Stewart and special friend Mary Joann Madison, both of Terre Haute; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends to numerous to mention.

The family would like to thank everyone for their prayers, support, and visits during his illness. Visitation will be Thursday, Feb. 11, 2016, from 11 a.m. until 1 p.m. in Samaritan Funeral Home, 2425 Wabash Ave., with funeral services at 1 p.m., with Dr. Rev. Kenneth Ladd officiating. As per Lloyd's request, cremation is to follow. Online condolences may be left at: www.samaritanfunerals.com

Published in Terre Haute Tribune Star

Services by

