

Rocco's Story

Rocco James Cooper Sr., 71, of Terre Haute, passed away July 1, 2018. He was born March 30, 1947, in Terre Haute, to Theodore Charles Cooper and Florence Manuel Cooper.

Rocco served in the United States Army. He worked at Pfister for several years. Rocco enjoyed fishing.

He is survived by his wife, Kathy Loser Cooper; his mother, Florence Cooper; sons, Rocco Jr., T.C., Chris and Zachary; daughters, Jeanne, Christina, Jana and stepdaughter, Amanda; brother, Angelo; sister, Beverly; grandchildren and great-grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his stepson, Bill; and siblings, Gary, Garold, Anthony, Keith, Manuel, David, Pamela, Brenda, and Bonita.

Cremation has been chosen, and no services are scheduled at this time. Care and arrangements have been entrusted to Greiner Funeral Home, 2005 North 13th Street, Terre Haute. Online condolences may be made at:

www.greinerfunerlahome.com

Published on July 3, 2018

Terre Haute Tribune-Star